BOARD OF DIRECTION

Aji Purushothaman
Director

"Becoming isn't about arriving somewhere or achieving a certain aim. I see it instead as forward motion, a means of evolving, a way to reach continuously toward a better self. The journey doesn't end."

The mission is the overall purpose and direction for engineering, expressed in terms of what the engineer wants to achieve. Usually, this is linked to a mission statement we will explain later. The vision is a long-term, aspirational goal for the engineering team
